

Wakefield Heritage Commission
August 1, 2005

Present: Elizabeth MacRury, Chairperson; Peter Brown, Nancy Bancroft and Pam Judge

Call to Order: Beth called the meeting to order at 5:00 PM.

Craft Fair: Peter reported on the Craft Fair. Eileen Lindbergh won the pieced throw donated by Peggy Richards.

Raffle	116.00
Pieced Throw	60.00
Wood Building	120.00
Donations-Big Jar	6.00
Food	45.00
Tables	400.00

State Register: Beth has sent the application in again. It appears to be eligible. The committee meets four times a year to review applications.

Garvin Building: The Chamber held their "After Hours" meeting in the newly renovated upstairs of the Garvin Building. The Choo Choo Café would like to have more space for the restaurant.

Turntable Park: Town Attorney, Rick Sager, Selectman, Paul Morrill, a representative from the Railroad met with State Executive Councilman, Ray Burton to review the possibility of the Town acquiring the land in Turntable Park. Part of the land is owned by the State of NH and part is owned by the Railroad.

Spinney Meeting House: Bats have been getting in the Spinney Meeting House. A company has been hired to clean up the mess and to fix where the bats are entering.

Grange: Pam and Beth attended the Grange meeting. There will be more meetings regarding the closure of the Grange. Pam Judge offered to help the Grange.

Next Meeting: The next meeting of the Wakefield Heritage Commission will be on August 22, 2005 at 5:00 PM.

The meeting adjourned at 6:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth B. MacRury
Acting Secretary

