Pride Day: Valerie reported she will not be able to attend due to her work schedule but has been reassured by Jill Richards the two open spots on the schedule for the dunking booth will be taken care of. Wayne reported that he has decided not to sell bracelets for the attractions; instead attendants will take $1 from each person who wishes to go in them and $2 for the climbing wall. The trikes will have a track set up using cones. This can be set up in the morning.
